Mission of The Bronx Museum of the Arts

The Bronx Museum of the Arts is a contemporary art museum that connects diverse audiences of the Bronx to the urban experience through its Permanent Collection, Exhibitions, and Education programs. Reflecting the borough's dynamic communities, the Museum is the crossroad where artists, local residents, national and international visitors meet.

Since its inception in 1971, the Bronx Museum has prioritized serving the culturally diverse communities in which it was founded. Always free and open to the public—so there are no barriers to access—the Museum's contemporary art programming expresses the borough's tremendous cultural and community wealth, striving to be an open, inclusive, and equitable place where all feel welcome.

The Bronx Museum is committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion as core values. As an institution, we:

- Appreciate and leverage our broad and distinct differences, and involve and reflect the communities we serve;

THE BRONX MUSEUM

- Align our policies, practices, and resources that eliminate barriers so that people of all races, cultures, socioeconomic status, and perspectives have genuine opportunities to contribute and thrive; and
- Create an environment in which everyone feels valued and respected.

Position Description

Reporting to the Chief Advancement Officer, the Development Manager will manage the Membership Program and be in charge of the Museum's donor database to ensure excellent data integrity while supporting the overall fundraising, communications and donor cultivation efforts of The Bronx Museum of the Arts. This position will also perform key duties for the Development office including, but not limited to, writing gift acknowledgements, conducting donor research and tracking, reporting on metrics, and supporting special events, including annual fundraising and cultivation events, the Travel Program, and membership solicitation and renewals.

Responsibilities

- Manage the Membership Program, including preparing solicitation, renewals, acknowledgements and event coordination, and serve as the main contact for members
- Manage the donor database (Veeva), including gift/donor data entry, donor information review and clean up, and ensuring strong data integrity/accuracy
- Oversee timely gift processing and acknowledgments to all donors
- Reconcile monthly gift entries and expenses with the Finance Department
- Generate reports on donor and membership data, trends, analytics, and prospect research
- Collaborate with the Development team in the execution of cultivation and special events, including logistical support, list segmentation for strategic outreach, mail merges, event registration, and day-of event execution
- Manage departmental, donor, and membership mailings
- Draft eblasts and written correspondence to donors as well as communicate via phone
- Prepare reports and materials for Department and fundraising meetings, and track progress and assigned next steps on projects
- Track departmental budget and expenses
- Assist Development team members with new and ongoing projects and initiatives as necessary
- Other duties as assigned
